A message found in a bottle and the curiosity of an antiquarian lead Vincent Germano to launch an investigation, the conclusion of which can only be at the limits of improbability. The chief will often be surrounded by persons to whom he will have to give an explanation, issue an order or ask for advice, but in fact he will be alone, as are all those who are seeking the truth. The complete mind, body, and spiritual transformation based on a highly successful course—now in paperback! The Awakening Course is Joe Vitale's most recent breakthrough program explaining the four stages of awakening. This thought-provoking book builds on everything Vitale has written and recorded to date, taking you to a whole new level of personal and professional transcendence. This book offers a proven step-by-step approach for finding and achieving your goals and desires through a complete mind, body, and spiritual transformation. Discover new perspectives on money, role models, and the power of your unconscious Re-state complaints into positive life-changing intentions, and turn your fears into a catalyst for success 5 steps for attracting anything or anyone into your life Joe Vitale is the author of the bestselling The Attractor Factor and The Key Let The Awakening Course take you to a place of transcendence. Picking up where Peter Kelder's remarkable book left off, Ancient Secret of the Fountain of Youth, Book 2 completes the Fountain of Youth health programme, with detailed information on a variety of topics discussed only fleetingly in the original bestseller: the history and origins of the Five Rites, valuable insights about how the Rites work, diet suggestions, and easy-to-follow exercises. Illustrated with fifty black-and-white photographs, this guide will help turn back the hands of time, invigorating and energizing readers' lives as never before. As its title suggests the book's message is one of compelling concern to just about anyone interested in their own wellbeing. So make time to turn back the clock, and achieve the health and vitality you've always dreamed of. Seventeen-year-old Çağlar is just another apathetic teenager--except when it comes to his sister, Çiğdem, who he believes is the world's most beautiful and brilliant nine-year-old. Determined to display her genius, Çağlar grooms Çiğdem's talent into a perfect Michael Jackson impersonation and pursues a sure route to fame: YouTube. Tragically, Çağlar's efforts are sabotaged by a little incident internationally known as the Taksim riots. Now it seems that everyone's too busy watching the people's uprising unfold to click on Çiğdem's video. That leaves Çağlar only one recourse: he will have to use the riots to his advantage. After all, who wouldn't want to watch a child doing the moonwalk against the backdrop of political unrest? But as Çağlar strives to showcase his sister, he finds himself pulled into the heart of the uprising and discovers that he may just have talent of his own. From bestselling author Emrah Serbes comes a hilarious, poignant story of a teen's struggle to find his place and launch his sister's star amid Turkey's real-life fight for freedom. Millions of people are trying to benefit from the personal development books in order to find solutions to their own problems. While only a few of such books are really sufficient and are able to improve and change people, most of them are written carelessly, far from our own culture, and have been listed in the "best seller" books thanks to big marketing techniques and in fact such Céleste Albaret was Marcel Proust's housekeeper in his last years, when he retreated from the world to devote himself to In Search of Lost Time. She could imitate his voice to perfection, and Proust himself said to her, "You know everything about me." Her reminiscences of her employer present an intimate picture of the daily life of a great writer who was also a deeply peculiar man, while Madame Albaret herself proves to be a shrewd and engaging companion. Birçok kişinin günlük başına gelen birçok duruma göre kendileri hakkındaki hisleri ve düşünceleri değişkenlik gösterebilir. Sınavdan aldığınız sonucun başarı derecesi, arkadaşlarınızın size karşı tavırları, romantik ilişkilerinizdeki iniş ve çıkışlar gibi her durum sizin üzerinizde geçici bir etki bırakır. Özgüven ise bu tarz durumlarla bağlantılı olan iniş ve çıkışlardan biraz daha bağımsız ve daha temel bir olgudur. İyi bir özgüvene sahip kişilerin günlük deneyimler karşısında yaşadığı inişler ve çıkışlar, kendileri hakkındaki düşüncelerini belirli bir ölçüde etkiler. Ancak bunun tersi olarak özgüveni düşük olan kişiler için günlük dalgalanmalar, kişinin kendisini nasıl gördüğünü önemli derecede etkilemektedir. this constantly evolving discipline.--Publisher. "AMELLERİN MÜKÂFATI NİYETLERE GÖREDİR..." "Niyetler hasıl olurken, kalbimizdeki sarmaşıkları, acıları temizlemek, kilitlediğimiz kapıları açabilmek, kabul etmek, izin vermek; sevginin, sevilmenin, hak ettiklerimizin, layık olduklarımızın hissine ve hazzına varmak, bu duygularla barışmak, dönüştürmek temel unsurlardan biri." Unutmayın, elinizdeki kitap bir kerede okuyup bitireceğiniz bir eser değil! Her gün gözlerinizi kapatıp bir niyet seçeceksiniz, her gün bu kitapla beraber yeniden doğacaksınız, her gün gülümseyerek yeniden başlayacaksınız. Zor günlerinizde yüreğiniz her daraldığında bu kitaptan bir sayfaya sarılacaksınız. Şu an yaşamınızın hangi noktasında olursanız olun, o noktaya huzur ve sevgi katmak, yorgunluklarınızı kenara koymak ve şimdiye kadar yaptığınız bütün çalışmaların meyvelerini toplamak için, taş ustaları gibi taşı kırmak üzere son çekiç darbelerini indireceğiniz niyetlerle, bulutların arasından doğan güneşi izleyeceksiniz. Evet, bu kitap başucunuzda yoldaşınız olacak, "Bugün bana ne mesaj gelmiş?", "Bugün neyi hatırlamam gerekiyor?", "Bugün neyi şifalamam gerekiyor?" diyecek, gözlerinizi kapatacak ve kalbinizin sesinin size ne söylediğini öğreneceksiniz. Niyetleriniz hasıl, yolunuz ışık olsun. "The Black Monk" by Anton Chekhov (translated by Constance Garnett). Published by Good Press. Looking down from the Eiffel Tower, Alan Greenmor stands on the edge, determined to end it all. As he prepares to jump, his thoughts are interrupted by a cough. To his right is a mysterious stranger in a dark suit, smoking a cigar. This is Yves Dubreuil. The person who will change Alan's life. Dubreuil convinces Alan to reconsider his plans, with one caveat: instead of ending his life, he will give his life over to Dubreuil. In return, Dubreuil promises to teach Alan the secrets to happiness and success. And so, Alan embarks on a wild ride of self-discovery. From a humiliating fiasco at a Parisian bakery, to finding the strength to assert himself in his company's boardroom, Alan learns to overcome his deepest fears and self-doubts, face life's unexpected twists and turns, take crazy risks, and fully accept himself in the process. From best-selling author Laurent Gounelle, The Man Who Risked It All explores the fragility of life and the possibilities that are presented to us in the unlikeliest circumstances. Covers the basics of grammar: the eight parts of speech. Concise, easy-to-understand explanations are reinforced by clear, straightforward examples. Four unrelated women join a knitting group and share new discoveries. In this inspiring and humorous book, John C. Parkin suggests that saying F**k It is the perfect Western expression of the Eastern spiritual ideas of letting go, giving up, and finding real freedom by realizing that things don't matter so much (if at all). It's a spiritual way that doesn't require chanting, meditating, or wearing sandals. And it's the very power of this profanity that makes it perfect for shaking us Westerners out of the stress and anxiety that dominate our daily lives. With the help of this book, people around the world are now saying F**k It to their worries and concerns, to the "shoulds" and the "oughts" that dominate their lives, and finally doing what they want to, no matter what others might think. "Self-help for the time-poor and psycho-babble intolerant." MARIE CLAIRE Time may not heal all wounds--but she can. You'd think being able to heal people with a touch would be a blessing. But to 17-year-old Remy O'Malley, it's more like a curse. Every injury Remy heals becomes her own. She lives in fear of the day she's forced to mend a wound from which she can't recover--and she's desperate to keep her amazing ability a secret. Enter Asher Blackwell, a scarred eighteen-year-old with dangerous powers of his own. Asher seems to know more about Remy's abilities than she does--and maybe more than he's letting on. If she opens up to him, she might find out what it truly means to be a Healer. But she'll also expose herself to capture by an old and very determined enemy. And if they catch her, they won't just injure her. They'll kill her. Corrine Jackson is a San Francisco transplant, having lived on both coasts from Southern California to New York City. This groundbreaking volume investigates the processes of globalization in Istanbul, one of the oldest and grandest of world cities.

Explaining the course of the conflicts and the compromises involved in maintaining a precarious urbanity, this theoretically informed volume focuses on the fields of struggle ranging from politics to heritage, humor to music, public space to housing. Listen, Little Man! is a great physician's quiet talk to each one of us, the average human being, the Little Man. Written in 1946 in answer to the gossip and defamation that plagued his remarkable career, it tells how Reich watched, at first naively, then with amazement, and finally with horror, at what the Little Man does to himself; how he suffers and rebels; how he esteems his enemies and murders his friends; how, wherever he gains power as a "representative of the people," he misuses this power and makes it crueler than the power it has supplanted. Reich asks us to look honestly at ourselves and to assume responsibility for our lives and for the great untapped potential that lies in the depth of human nature. Come back to Blossom Street, where you'll find everything you're looking for, from yarn and flowers, to friendship... Enjoy again the beloved series from #1 New York Times bestselling author Debbie Macomber. There's a new shop on Seattle's Blossom Street—a flower store called Susannah's Garden, right next door to A Good Yarn. Susannah Nelson, the owner, has just hired an assistant named Colette Blake, a young widow who's obviously hiding a secret—or two! When Susannah and Colette both join Lydia Goetz's new knitting class, they discover that Lydia and her sister, Margaret, have worries of their own. Margaret's daughter, Julia, is the victim of a random carjacking, and the entire family is thrown into emotional chaos. Then there's Alix Townsend, whose wedding is only months away. She's not sure she can go through with it, though. A reception at the country club, with hundreds of guests she's never met—it's just not Alix. But, like everyone in Lydia's knitting class, she knows there's a solution to every problem...and another woman can usually help you find it. Originally published in 2007 One of the twentieth century's greatest spiritual teachers invites you onto the path that takes you through all of life's experiences and to embrace your own humanity. Man is a bridge, says Osho, between the animal and the divine—and our awareness of this dual aspect of our nature is what makes us human. It is also what makes us restless, full of conflict, so often at the crossroads of selfishness and generosity, of love and hate, frailty and strength, hope and despair. The Journey of Being Human: Is It Possible to Find Real Happiness in Ordinary Life? looks into how we might embrace and accept these apparent contradictions, rather than trying to choose between them, as the key to transforming each twist and turn of life's journey into a new discovery of who we are meant to be. Osho challenges readers to examine and break free of the conditioned belief systems and prejudices that limit their capacity to enjoy life in all its richness. He has been described by the Sunday Times of London as one of the "1000 Makers of the 20th Century" and by Sunday Mid-Day (India) as one of the ten people—along with Gandhi, Nehru, and Buddha—who have changed the destiny of India. Since his death in 1990, the influence of his teachings continues to expand, reaching seekers of all ages in virtually every country of the world. Vintage is Susan Gloss's sparkling debut novel in the Vein of The Friday Night Knitting Club, centered around a Midwestern vintage clothing shop and a group of women who eventually transform the store and each others' lives. At Hourglass Vintage in Madison, Wisconsin, every item in the boutique has a story to tell . . . and so do the women who are drawn there. Violet Turner has always dreamed of owning a shop like Hourglass Vintage. When she is faced with the possibility of losing it, she realizes that, as much as she wants to, she cannot save it alone. Eighteen-year-old April Morgan is nearly five months along in an unplanned pregnancy when her hasty engagement is broken. When she returns the perfect 1950s wedding dress, she discovers unexpected possibilities and friends who won't let her give up on her dreams. Betrayed by her husband, Amithi Singh begins selling off her old clothes, remnants of her past life. After decades of housekeeping and parenting a daughter who rejects her traditional ways, she fears she has nothing more ahead for her. An engaging story that beautifully captures the essence of women's friendship and love, Vintage is a charming tale of possibility, of finding renewal and hope when we least expect it. The Universe Is My Sugar Mama (Evrenden Torpilim Var) has become not just an all-time bestseller (in Turkey, but has also helped pioneer the popularity of the self-help movement and bring to the foreground the concept of life coaching in Turkey. It also has helped create a dynamic change in the tone of books written by Turkish authors from that point on, from academic to more layman-oriented language. Besides the publication being known as a "self-help book," a number of universities have implemented it into their curricula as an example of authenticity in authorship. Ozer Ucuran Ciller has searched the literature (and his own soul) to find and unlock the secret underlying the Law of Attraction. Integrating eastern spirituality with western reason and modern science, Ciller gives us clues as to how we can change our perceptions, our lives, and our health. Widely popular in Turkey, the English version of the book is now being made available to seekers of truth across the face of the globe. Neale Donald Walsch has changed the way the world thinks about God. His books have been translated into twenty-five languages, and his Conversations With God series, book 1, book 2, and book 3, have all been New York Times bestsellers—book 1 for over two years. In the Conversations books, Walsch shared with his readers the beginning of a sacred relationship, as he began an exchange with God on everything from love and faith, to life and death, and good and evil. And then, as Walsch recounted in Friendship with God, something else extraordinary began to happen. His relationship with God began to strengthen and deepen, just as our own relationships do, into a friendship. Now in Communion with God, his most richly intimate book yet, Walsch discovers how to elevate that friendship to a state of communion. In this blueprint for seekers, he reveals The Ten Illusions of Man—the misconceptions we hold about ourselves and our world and our God. He describes with striking clarity how we might heal the great divide that has arisen from these illusions. And as he explores the true meaning of bringing God into our everyday lives, of having the courage of our convictions. Walsch shows us that we can only break free from our illusions when we act always from a place of deep fellowship with all that is holy—a place of communion with God. From the author of "The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari" comes an inspiring parable about the skills needed to excel in career and life. The authors share processes, tools, and points of view that can be used to change the way money flows into one's life. What a person is unwilling to receive creates the limitation of what he or she can have. In this groundbreaking exploration, three New York Times bestselling authors—Debbie Ford (The Dark Side of the Light Chasers, Why Good People Do Bad Things), Marianne Williamson (The Age of Miracles, A Return to Love), and Deepak Chopra (Jesus: A Story of Enlightenment)—deliver a comprehensive and practical guide to harnessing the power of our dark side.
