Ava: Kidnapped by a serial killer with an affinity for pain and madness. Lost to a world created by a sick and twisted monster. I died there, in the belly of the beast. But as the Fates willed it, I came back to life. Now I ' m under the King ' s Wolves protection, fighting to determine what is real and what are broken delusions. Hunted by the man who thought that he had killed me. Little does he know, I ' m no longer his prey. I ' m under the thumb of a man living with gut-wrenching guilt, but can I convince him that nobody can hurt me any longer? Or will he drive us both into the ground with his fear?

Ouija: My ' cunning ' has always been revered as a gift. I ' ve forever called it a curse. My ' knowing ' leads me to the gravesite of a woman who has plagued my dreams for sixteen years. Buried alive, my self-loathing for this alleged gift only grows. It ' s something that I ' ve suppressed and neglected—something that I ' ve always feared. I ' m human. Nobody should have this ability. But living with the knowledge that I had a hand in her unfathomable torment and pain hardens my resolve. Ava Delaney is mine. I ' ve claimed her. I ' ll reach into the deepest parts of me and learn how to control my gift if it means that I can stop the man who is hunting her. Serial killers don't like to lose. He let her get away, and that's his mistake—one that I'll never make. Out of all my brothers, I'm probably the one with the most humanity. When it comes to it, though, will I lose my Sapphire? Or will I learn in time to save her?

Trigger Warning- Dark themes and tragic stories. My work will always be on the darker side, with happily-devil-afters. Degrees of dark and tragic vary. Soft to hard. I have no middle ground. There are no boundaries. It's where the story takes me. No cheating, my Heroines would eat their Alphas and then there would be no story. Know your worth! We'll love you anyway. I write paranormal fairy tales and dark romance for the dark hearted. Queen's in black kicking ass and King's on their knees, worshiping their women. And only their women. M/F. So my question, will you take immortality by the hand? XOX- Emmaleigh. Please note this is not a Paranormal series, however in one or more books there may be Paranormal aspects as the character 'Ouija' is a seer. Ouija is a fast burn novel. This is book two in the interconnecting Kings Wolves MC series.

The Self-Transforming School combines an insightful meta-analysis of factors contributing to the success of schools, and an examination of powerful mega-trends that are shaping developments in education, to offer the first mega-analysis in education policy and practice. The book spans fifty years, beginning with Caldwell and Spinks' ground-breaking work The Self-Managing School which advocated innovative approaches that are now accepted as preferred practice, before offering a prognosis and plan for the future. The book argues that all schools in all settings can secure success for all students in an era where society and the economy are changing constantly and dramatically. Although schools find some support in local and global networks, externally designed restructuring, re-staffing, or command-and-control direction isn't sufficient to achieve transformation. Instead of replicating particular approaches to achieve modest improvement, leadership of the highest quality needs to be deeply embedded in schools and their systems. Caldwell and Spinks propose three important points that need to be taken into consideration: -schools are often at different stages of self-transformation -self-transformation requires a high level of professionalism, and must include teacher education and on-going professional development -funding is critically important, and efforts to build a capacity for self-transformation are constrained by what is available. The book gives particular attention to developments in Australia, Brazil, Canada, England, Finland, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Shanghai, Singapore and the United States. It will be of key interest to school leaders, policy makers, and academics and postgraduate students engaged in research on equity, student performance in highly disadvantaged settings and education policy.
